Case Study: LTS Gives Back to Texas Community to Stay Safe

Introduction

LTS' goal is to provide security solutions for any situation. However, we realize that sometimes surveillance systems can be expensive. We recognized that need in the River Oaks community in Houston, TX. The River Oaks Patrol wanted help and LTS stepped in to donate to the private non-profit security patrol service.

Results

LTS donated a 4 Channel NVR and four Dome 3.2MP cameras. In addition to the surveillance system, LTS also provided them with the wiring and installation, which was completed by Western Systems Inc. River Oaks Patrol was very appreciative of LTS' NVR surveillance system.

"I wish I could emphasize how valuable this donated equipment will be for our neighborhood as a demonstration tool and I cannot express enough [of] my appreciation for [LTS]," Operations Manager Mark McMahon said.

McMahon indicated that the equipment will be used to train his investigative team so they can effectively pull data from other systems in the Houston area. River Oaks Patrol has been gathering data on burglary suspects which they share with local law enforcement officials.

Mark and his team have also been able to educate the community on the benefits of surveillance systems. The community has been very responsive in reporting crime. Surveillance systems are becoming more common in neighborhoods as they help reduce crime and lead to arrests. LTS was proud to help River Oaks Patrol from Houston and look forwarding to helping other organizations in the future
